

NETWORK SYSTEM DESIGN AND SOME SECURITY SOLUTIONS FOR AN KHANH CORPORATION

nan

Abstract: As we know, Information Technology is an indispensable sector in the development of a modern society today. With just a computer connected to the global Internet, people can communicate and exchange information with family, friends, business partners... anywhere in the world. We cannot deny the extremely important role of the Internet in human life. However, the development of the Internet brings concerns about high-tech crimes that are rampant and showing a strong growth trend.
