

Building the Hoa Duy 8T boarding house management software

Nguyen Van Hieu

Abstract: In the current context, effective management of boarding houses is an urgent issue to improve service quality and meet the needs of tenants. This topic focuses on building a software management system for Hoa Duy 8T boarding house with the goal of optimizing the workflow for landlords, enhancing transparency and convenience for tenants. The research method combines academic and experimental approaches to ensure the system can meet most practical usage needs. The expected results will contribute a useful solution in the field of housing management, while also providing an important database for future research.

Keywords: Management software, Boarding house, Management information system, Application experiment, Needs analysis