

Building the Dam Sen Motel Management Software

Nguyen Minh Cong

Abstract: This topic focuses on building a motel management system to meet the need for optimizing operational processes and customer service at Dam Sen. Through practical research, we have identified key aspects that need improvement in motel management, thereby proposing a suitable software solution. The research method combines analyzing business needs with implementing practical applications. Completing this system not only helps improve management efficiency but also creates a sustainable foundation for future development.

Keywords: Management software, Motel, Management automation, Information technology, Customer service