

Deploy network management solution on Windows Server platform for Nanosys Company - Bac Ninh

Thousand Van Dong

Abstract: In the context of increasing demands for network security and performance, this research aims to build a specialized network management system for Nanosys - Bac Ninh Company on the Windows Server platform. The approach combines theory with experimentation to ensure the feasibility of the solution. The project is expected to provide an effective and secure management solution, enhancing work productivity while minimizing network risks.

Keywords: Network Administration, Windows Server, Nanosys Company - Bac Ninh, Network Security, Network Performance