

Building the accounting subsystem for sales and determining business results based on MS Excel software at Nguyen Kiem electronics store, Minh Tien commune, Dai Tu district, Thai Nguyen province.

Ly Thi Chang

Abstract: This topic aims to research and implement a sub-ledger accounting system for sales and business result determination for the Nguyen Kiem electronics store in Minh Tien commune, Dai Tu district, Thai Nguyen province. To address the issue of managing financial information quickly and accurately, this study applies a combined method of accounting theory with experimentation using MS Excel software to build a support system. Through this, the topic hopes to bring high application value in improving the business management efficiency of the enterprise.

Keywords: Sales accounting subsystem, Business result determination, MS Excel software, Financial management, Electronics store