

Application of information technology in managing office equipment at 8.1 Manufacturing and Trading Company Limited, Bac Ninh Province.

Nguyen Thi Phuc

Abstract: In the modern context, effectively managing office equipment is an urgent issue for many businesses. This topic focuses on applying information technology to improve management processes at 8.1 Manufacturing and Trading Company Limited, Bac Ninh province. The objective of the research is to build an automated management system to optimize equipment usage efficiency and reduce operational costs. The method applied combines theoretical research with experimentation to deploy the application. Through data analysis, the system is expected to bring significant improvements in office equipment management, contributing to enhancing the company's business operational efficiency.

Keywords: Information technology, Office equipment management, Automation platform, Limited Liability Company, Bac Ninh