

Illustration design for the story "The Legend of the 12 Zodiac Animals"

Nong Thi Tuoi

Abstract: In practice, the transmission of culture through folk tales plays an important role. This topic focuses on designing illustrations for the story 'The Legend of the 12 Zodiac Animals' with the aim of vividly recreating the characters and historical context. Through theoretical research on comic illustration combined with experimentation, this topic aims to provide effective illustration design solutions. The expected results will contribute to cultural education through graphic media and convey historical knowledge in an engaging way to children.

Keywords: Comic illustration, The Legend of the 12 Zodiac Animals, Folk culture