

Building a backup network system and security for Tesung Joint Stock Company - Bac Giang

To Thi Toan

Abstract: In the modern context, the issue of network security and reliability has become more urgent than ever. This topic focuses on building a backup and secure network system for Tesung - Bac Giang Joint Stock Company. The objective of the research is to develop a comprehensive solution to enhance the ability to resist cyber attacks and ensure the continuous operation of the system. The method combines network security theory with practical experiments on the enterprise's current network structure. It is expected that this topic will make important contributions to the field of network management by providing an effective and flexible solution.

Keywords: Backup network system, Network security, Tesung Joint Stock Company - Bac Giang, Cybersecurity, Risk control