

Building an accounting program for depreciation of fixed assets at Nguyen Hoang Joint Stock Company, Thai Nguyen

Nguyen Van Dong

Abstract: In the context of increasingly important financial management for businesses, this topic focuses on building a computer program system to support accounting for fixed asset depreciation at Nguyen Hoang Joint Stock Company, Thai Nguyen. The objective of the research is to improve financial management efficiency by automating the depreciation process and minimizing errors in financial reporting. The method combines theoretical analysis of accounting with practical system implementation. The expected outcome of the topic is to provide a modern technological solution that helps the enterprise enhance productivity and the quality of financial information.

Keywords: Accounting, Depreciation of fixed assets, Nguyen Hoang Joint Stock Company, Thai Nguyen, Computer system