

Building an accounting program for raw materials and tools for Yen Tien Lacquer and Bamboo Coil Company Limited, Nam Dinh.

Dinh Thi Thu Hien

Abstract: In the context of effective financial management in enterprises, this topic aims to build an accounting management system for raw materials and tools of Yen Tien Lacquerware and Bamboo Co., Ltd. Through theoretical research combined with practical implementation, this project not only solves the existing problem of financial organization but also brings high application value in optimizing management efficiency and enhancing the company's competitiveness. The results of this topic have the potential to open new development directions for the accounting industry in small and medium-sized enterprises in Vietnam.

Keywords: Accounting for raw materials, tools, instruments, management system, Yen Tien Lacquerware and Bamboo Co., Ltd., Nam Dinh