

Building a fixed asset accounting program for TNG Investment and Trading Joint Stock Company, Phu Binh 3 branch, Thai Nguyen.

Dam Thi Yeu

Abstract: This topic aims to solve the problem of effective fixed asset management in the business practice of TNG Investment and Trading Joint Stock Company, Phu Binh 3 branch, Thai Nguyen. The objective is to build a specialized accounting program system to support more efficient monitoring, evaluation, and decision-making regarding the use of fixed assets. The research method includes theoretical analysis of fixed asset management combined with practical application deployment. The expected results will bring significant benefits in asset management as well as enhance the company's competitiveness.

Keywords: Fixed asset management, Accounting software, Limited Liability Company, Thai Nguyen