

Building a program to manage costume rental for performances.

Đặng Thị Lê

Abstract: This topic focuses on the necessity of an effective management system in the field of performance costume rental. The objective is to build and deploy an application to optimize management processes, reduce costs, and enhance customer experience. The research method combines theory with experimentation to ensure the feasibility of the system. Expected results contribute to improving the performance costume rental service industry in Vietnam, providing a suitable technological solution.

Keywords: Performance costume management, Rental management system, Application technology, Costume rental, Digitalization