

Building a cash accounting program at Thai Nguyen Food Joint Stock Company - Dai Tu Branch

Tran Thi Vi

Abstract: This topic aims to research and build a cash fund accounting management system for Thai Nguyen Food Joint Stock Company - Dai Tu Branch, based on the actual requirements of production and business activities. Through the process of researching and analyzing relevant information, the topic identifies the main objective as improving the efficiency of cash fund management, contributing to enhancing the company's financial capacity. The research method includes synthesizing current accounting regulations combined with practical experimentation at the company, to ensure the suitability and feasibility of system implementation. The expected results of the topic not only bring direct benefits in terms of financial management for the unit but also make an important contribution to the development of the accounting profession in the locality.

Keywords: Cash accounting, Financial management, Thai Nguyen Food Joint Stock Company