

Building the Tax Accounting Program at G7 - Hanoi Financial Investment and Trading Joint Stock Company

Bui Thi La

Abstract: In the context of increasingly comprehensive tax laws, building a professional tax accounting program for the company is an urgent requirement. This topic aims to develop an automated tax management system, optimizing the process of handling and calculating taxes. Through theoretical research combined with empirical study at G7 Financial Investment and Trading Joint Stock Company - Hanoi, the goal is to create a comprehensive solution to enhance tax management efficiency. The expected results of this topic not only contribute to tax law compliance but also bring significant economic benefits to the company.

Keywords: Tax accounting, Automated tax management, G7 Financial Investment and Trading Joint Stock Company, Hanoi