

Research on the application of 1C software in fixed asset accounting at 228 Construction Works Joint Stock Company - Soc Son - Hanoi

Nguyen Thi Lien

Abstract: This topic aims to study and propose solutions for using 1C Software in fixed asset management at Construction Company 228 - Soc Son - Hanoi. By analyzing the current situation, the topic identifies the goal of improving the efficiency of fixed asset management through the application of 1C Software. The research method includes synthesizing and evaluating the current fixed asset management tools at the Company, thereby proposing a solution to deploy 1C Software suitable for the actual operations of the enterprise. The expected result is to help the company enhance the quality of fixed asset management, reduce work procedures, and increase transparency in the process of recording information.

Keywords: 1C software, Fixed asset management, Construction company, Applied research