

Completing the accounting process for purchases and accounts payable at Tan Lien Thanh Production and Trading Joint Stock Company - My Dinh - Hanoi

Dam Thi Ngoc

Abstract: This topic aims to study and improve the accounting process for purchases and accounts payable at Tan Lien Thanh - My Dinh Production and Trading Joint Stock Company, Hanoi. Against the backdrop of increasingly stringent corporate financial management, the topic focuses on identifying practical issues in the accounting process and proposing improvement solutions. Through a combination of theoretical research and empirical study, the objective is to build an effective accounts payable management system, thereby enhancing the company's work productivity and transparency. The expected results will make important contributions to improving the quality of accounting at the company.

Keywords: Financial management, Purchase accounting, Accounts payable, Empirical research, Process reform