

Building a cash accounting program at TCICO Construction Consulting and Investment Joint Stock Company - Thai Nguyen

Nguyen Thi Thao

Abstract: The study aims to propose solutions for optimizing financial management, particularly the development of a cash-based accounting program system for TCICO Construction Consulting and Investment Joint Stock Company - Thai Nguyen. The actual context at the enterprise necessitates the application of information technology to enhance financial management efficiency. The objective of the research is to develop an automated cash accounting system while ensuring accuracy and compliance with accounting regulations. The approach combines practical analysis at the enterprise with theoretical research to build a suitable solution. The expected outcome is improved financial management capability and enhanced operational performance of the company.

Keywords: Cash accounting, Financial management, Information technology, Accounting system, TCICO Company