

Learn about the open-source Drupal and its application in building a Vietnamese toy shop website for Antona-Hanoi company.

Nguyen Thi Binh

Abstract: This topic aims to analyze and evaluate the features of the open-source Drupal, while applying it to building an online shop website for Antona company in Hanoi. The goal is to create a professional online shopping system with a user-friendly interface, meeting the diverse needs of customers. The research method includes competitor analysis and practical implementation based on Drupal. This topic hopes to contribute to improving business efficiency for Antona company by optimizing the interface and user experience, while expanding the enterprise's digital market.

Keywords: Drupal, Web Shop, Antona, Open Source, Website building