

Analysis, design, and development of fixed asset management software at Effect Software Joint Stock Company - Hanoi

Nguyen Thi Minh

Abstract: In the modern context, fixed asset management in organizations is becoming increasingly important. This topic aims to analyze practical requirements and design an effective fixed asset management software system for Effect Software Joint Stock Company - Hanoi. Through the research process, the topic combines academic methods with practical application to build a suitable software solution. The expected results will contribute to improving asset management performance and enhancing the company's competitiveness.

Keywords: Asset management software, Effect Software Joint Stock Company, Fixed asset management system