

Building a management program for the value-added tax accounting subsystem for Hoa Binh Minh Construction Materials Joint Stock Company - Vinh Phuc

Nguyen Thi Thanh Nga

Abstract: In the current economic development context, accurate management and monitoring of value-added tax (VAT) has become an urgent requirement for businesses. This topic focuses on building a management program for the VAT accounting subsystem for Hoa Binh Minh - Vinh Phuc Construction Materials Joint Stock Company, aiming to improve efficiency in tax operation and control, ensuring compliance with legal regulations. The research method is carried out through a combination of theoretical methods on VAT accounting with modeling and software application deployment. It is expected that the topic will bring important contributions to improving the financial management of the enterprise.

Keywords: VAT tax management, Accounting software, Construction materials company