

Building a computer sales website for Laptop 4G Company - Thai Nguyen

Vu Thi Chiem

Abstract: In the context of the increasingly developing online business environment, this topic focuses on building an e-commerce web system for Laptop 4G-Thai Nguyen Company. The main objective is to provide an effective management and sales solution through the digital environment. The research methodology includes analyzing requirements, designing user interfaces, and deploying the actual application. Through this, the topic aims to contribute a robust support system for the company's business operations, thereby promoting sustainable development.

Keywords: E-commerce website, sales management, Laptop 4G Company - Thai Nguyen