

Building the material accounting subsystem for Traffic Construction Joint Stock Company I - Thai Nguyen

Nguyen Thi Huyen

Abstract: This topic aims to introduce a specialized material accounting subsystem for Traffic Construction Joint Stock Company I - Thai Nguyen, meeting the need for effective management of various materials in the production process. Through theoretical research and experimental implementation, the topic hopes to contribute to improving the material accounting process, enhancing the accuracy and timeliness of financial reports. The research results will provide a foundation for the sustainable development of the company.

Keywords: Material accounting, Management system, Construction company